

To whom it may concern,

I just wanted to send an email saying how happy we are that we chose your venue to celebrate our wedding at. We got married on the 29th June in the Godrevy room at 1pm.

The day was perfection, stress free and relaxed and we both can't credit Nicole Thomas enough. She made all of our wedding planning as simple as possible and couldn't do enough for us. We only really met Harriet on the day before the wedding but she also couldn't do enough.

The food was absolutely exquisite, we can't complain or fault anything.

We just wanted to let you know how grateful we are that our wedding day was perfect and we can't wait to return to the most breathtaking venue.

Many Thanks,
Samantha and Lee
