

CARBIS BAY
HOTEL AND ESTATE

COCKTAIL
MENU

Cocktails

Champagne-Based

£12.50

Poinsettia

Bollinger meets cranberry juice with a touch of Cointreau

Kir Royal

Chambord with Bollinger, made for each other

French 75

Blends Bollinger with gin and lemon for one heck of a kick. Lots of refreshing citrus notes

Bellini

White peach purée mixed gently with Bollinger

Martinis

£8.95

Dry Martini

The iconic cocktail showcases the complexity of Bombay Sapphire

Dirty Martini

The Dirty Martini is a classic that is a simple and popular variation of the original Martini

French Martini

The origin of Chambord gives this cocktail its French name, when paired with Belvedere vodka it puts itself on the map

Espresso Martini

Using chilled espresso that gives it a caffeinated kick which you just can't duplicate with coffee liqueurs alone

Limoncello Martini

Limoncello, the famous Southern Italian liqueur makes for the perfect base for this pucker-up vodka martini

Contemporary Classics

£9.50

Mojito

Appleton's white rum, mint and fresh pressed lime come together to create a crisp, refreshing and perfectly balanced mojito

Cosmopolitan

A step above the rest with the purity of Belvedere vodka, cranberry and Cointreau

Long Island Ice Tea

This is definitely a holiday drink combining spirits from around the globe to create a punchy number not for the faint hearted

Southern Comfort Manhattan

A popular cocktail with a twist although still keeping a well-rounded smooth finish

Apple Daiquiri

A summer classic with a core difference while still keeping its refreshing and sweet taste

Margarita

A mixture of tequila, Cointreau and lime. A classic cocktail sour yet refreshing

White Russian

The White Russian is a drink everyone should know. Creamy vodka mixed drink with a pleasant coffee flavour that makes a great after-dinner sipper

Enjoy